

Directorate: People and Culture
Supported by: Director of People and Culture

Volunteering at Mary's Meals International:

Our mission, vision, and values are at the very heart of everything we do here at Mary's Meals, we believe in the innate goodness of people, respect the dignity of every human being and family life and believe in good stewardship of the resources entrusted to us. Without thousands of incredibly dedicated volunteers across the world, our work would not be possible. Thank you for gifting your time, energy and skills to support us in the furtherance of our mission.

Expert volunteers are crucial to our success. They form an essential part of the unstoppable driving force behind us reaching the next child waiting for daily meals in their place of education.

We're fortunate to benefit from the expertise of several expert volunteers who give their time and skill to help us progress specialist, strategic pieces of work.

Role purpose:

We're asking for expressions of interest from an expert volunteer to support Mary's Meals to develop the Safe Media and Communications component of our Global Safeguarding Framework.

You will coordinate a discreet piece of work to advise and guide our global Communications and Marketing teams to develop their understanding of safe media and comms principles and practices. In particular, we are looking for support with the following tasks:

Key Activities:

- Develop and deliver an online awareness-raising session on the key principles that underpin safe media and communications, including usage of images, media visits, informed consent, data protection etc
- and/or,
- Provide support in the development or review of policies, procedures and tools.

Experience/skills and attributes you will need:

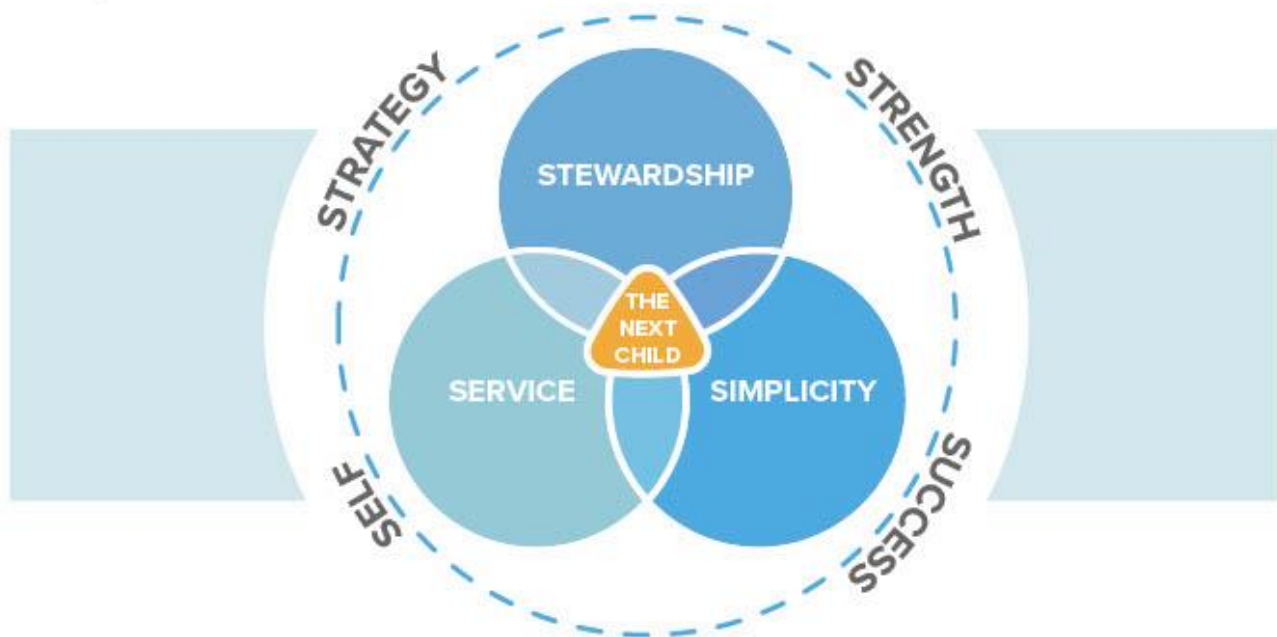

- Experience of developing and delivering similar training or,
- Experience of developing and operationalizing safe media and communication tools and policies
- In-depth and up-to-date knowledge of sector safeguarding best practice.
- Willingness and ability to give your time to build capacity at Mary's Meals.

Safeguarding:

In line with our values, Mary's Meals is fully committed to a culture of safeguarding. As a volunteer you will be required to uphold the standards outlined in MMI's Safeguarding Policy, acting with due care and attention to safeguard anyone that comes into contact with our work.

ASPIRATION INTO ACTION

Empowering our people to deliver on the promises we make is at the heart of our mission and is more crucial than ever if we're going to turn our aspiration into action. As our movement continues to grow we need to make sure we work harder than ever to: a) keep things simple b) remain completely committed to serving the children at the heart of our organisation and c) be terrific stewards of the gifts that are entrusted to us. These three elements of our unique culture will accelerate our journey and help us reach the next child sooner.

SIMPLICITY

We will remain focused on our core vision – that every child should receive a daily meal in school – and communicate the needs of the children we serve and the nature of our mission in a straightforward, open and transparent way.

SERVICE

We will approach our vision and mission in a spirit of deep vocation and humble service, seeking always to be faithful servants of hope, the global movement, and those little ones who eat Mary's Meals each day.

STEWARDSHIP

We will strive to be good stewards of every gift entrusted to us – treating each one with deep love, respect and gratitude – and build meaningful, long-term relationships with all those involved in our work.

